Another "Wardman" Offering

Work has been started on the construction of 72 modern homes in one of the most desirable sections.

We have named an unusually low price on these homes in an effort to meet the popular demand. These prices are made possible only by concentrated effort of a large organization on a large building operation, and we confidently expect quick sales such as characterized the marketing of one of our recent home operations which was sold out completely on the same day that the homes were offered.

PRICE: 6 rooms and bath.....$6,000
6 rooms and bath, built-in garage, $6,300

These homes contain all modern conveniences and will be complete in every respect, including street paving, sidewalks and alley.

Selection of your home may be made NOW from plans and specifications at this office.

Our representatives will be glad to explain details and take you to the site of the operation.

Cash payment of $1,000 will be required and purchasers may make monthly installments while the buildings progress, such installments to apply on account of the initial cash payment.

ROAD BOND ISSUE CAMPAIGN FACTOR

Comes to Front as Sudden Turn in Virginia Gubernatorial Race.

Special Dispatch to The Star.

RICHMOND, Va., May 21.—Bonds for roads has come to the front in connection with the gubernatorial race as the only real issue in the campaign. Just why this sudden turn to the bonds and connecting the gubernatorial race with the road issue is hard to understand and it is causing considerable confusion. The governor is vested with no power in the way of legislation, being merely the executive. If the legislature should pass a bill for the issuance of bonds he could sign it or veto it, or it might become a law without his signature.

The question is for the decision of the people of the state at large when they elect members of the next branch of the legislature, all of the members of which are to be chosen this fall. That there is opposition to the bond issue, and that it is growing at an enormous rate, is admitted by the friends of good roads. The people of the state are convinced that a bond issue means an increase in their taxes, and they are pointing to the fact that they are now paying nearly $1,000,000 annually in the way of interest on bonds that were issued more than sixty years ago.

There was a conference of men from many parts of the state here this week, called by the Virginia Taxpayers' Association, and at this the sentiment was against any bond issue for roads. The speaker from the association shows that 75 per cent of the people are opposed to the bonds.

Senator Tucker and Mr. Tucker have declared against any increase in taxes, and while this tantamount to opposition to the issuance of bonds, demand is that the candidates shall make unqualified utterance on the subject.

They want only $12,000,000 of bonds next year, these to be sold at par and to carry a per cent interest, but if state bonds with that rate of interest can be sold at par it will be a feat in finance.

Labor is still plentiful in this city, with increasing numbers to be seen on the streets daily. It is observed that the exodus of men from farms and the rural sections to the city has come to an end, and there are many who have been and who have been thrown out of employment who have gone to the country and they are back on the farm at the wages of street car men here will take a tumble at the expiration of the present contract.

War On Vice.

The city has been stirred considerably on the public dance, vice and the risqué movie show launched when State Health Commissioner Williams called attention to the vice conditions—the jostling, costuming of the young girls, along with the dance halls. The Rev. A. Jenkins of Calvary Baptist Church, came back in support of Dr. Williams and informed the members of his congregation that they could make up their minds to take their names off the church rolls or they would have to abandon the dancing places and the movie shows, except in rare instances. On the other hand, there are some ministers who see no harm from home dancing and the movies, and they are defending them.

Teachers in the public schools of the state are preparing to quit the service after the close of the session the coming month, and many of them will go to other states in which more compensation is offered. In Danville the entire force of teachers have refused to sign up for another year, even at advanced pay, until they have been given the bonus for the last two years which has not been given them.

The American Legion of this city is on the trail of the candidates for governor and other state officers. The soldiers are asking for the bonus and demand that the candidates define their position.

With only eight days intervening before the closing of the lists of candidates to be voted for in the August primary, there have been payments by none of the aspirants for governor and only two of the four candidates for lieutenant governor and the attorney general. The aspirants for the minor places were not slow to state, and to date there is opposition for only three of the eight places to be filled. The final filing day is June 2.

With the death of Chief Justice White of the United States Supreme Court the people of this city and state are discussing the possibility of that position. On all sides the hope is expressed that the selection will fall on former President Taft. The appointment of Judge Edmund Waddill, Jr. of this city, as the successor to Judge J. C. Pritchard to the circuit court has occasioned a good deal of pleasure among his friends, regardless of politics.

Scottish Rite Masons in this city are preparing for the spring reunion the end of this month, when a class of not less than 325 candidates will receive the degrees from the fourth to the thirty-second. More than 200 of these have already been elected, and there are more than 100 names to be voted on at the meeting to be held Monday night. There has not been such a number of candidates for the higher degrees for years, and the subordinate lodges of the state are conferring the degrees at every meeting.

CHERRYDALE.

CHERRYDALE, Va., May 21.—The proposed Lee highway and its advantages to Cherrydale, through which it will run, and to Arlington county in general, proved an interesting subject at a special meeting of the Washington District Citizens' Association held here Thursday evening. H. B. Mason was appointed delegate to represent the association on the local committee, which meets in Falls Church.

The association was unanimously in favor of participating in the big automobile parade to be held May 30 in celebration of the action of the Lee Highway Association in designating the route of the proposed highway from Key bridge via Cherrydale, Falls Church and Merrifield, to Fairfax.

A committee, consisting of S. H. York, Ernest M. Shreve and R. C. Clements, was appointed to handle subscriptions and other features. All persons along the route are urged to join the parade, which will leave Cherrydale at 9 o'clock and terminate at Merrifield, where a lawn fête will be given for the purpose of raising funds to open the road from there to Fairfax.

All of the civic bodies in Cherrydale are taking a deep interest in the coming event and will see to it that all residents and business houses display flags or other appropriate decorations.

As prizes will be awarded automobiles making the best showing in the parade, the Washington District Citizens' Association decided by vote to make a special contribution to this feature.

The association also appointed a committee, consisting of P. V. Roundy, W. D. Williams and W. G. Greenwell, to arrange a joint meeting of the civic organizations in Washington, D. C., at which Dr. J. W. Cox will be requested to present the plans and specifications of the proposed county waterworks and sewerage systems.

Addresses were made by Mayor Harry A. Fellows of Falls Church, H. H. Millard of Falls Church, Supervisor Walter Weaver and Harry Thomas, president of the West Virginia Heights Citizens' Association.

The Cherrydale volunteer fire department has been invited by Reid A. Acorn, chief of the Lexington, Va., fire department, to take part in the thirty-fifth annual convention of Virginia state firemen to be held at Lexington, August 24-26, inclusive, and to compete for the one thousand dollars in prizes which are to be offered, in hand, athletic and automobile contests.

B. A. Bowles, president of the Georgetown Citizens' Association, is announced, will be the principal speaker at the meeting of the League to be held Monday evening in Grace Chapel.

A five hundred party for the benefit of the building fund will be given by the fire department in Firemen's Hall June 7. Handsome prizes will be awarded. It is stated.

FREDERICKSBURG.
FREDERICKSBURG, Va., May 21.—The annual convocation of the graduates of the Fredericksburg State Normal School will take place at the institution from Friday, May 20, to Sunday, May 22. Sixty-one members of the graduating class of 1920-21.

Following prior events are scheduled: Friday, May 20, a tennis tournament was held, and on Saturday, May 21, the annual field day events took place. ## FREDERICK.

FREDERICK, Md., May 21 (Special).—John D. Hendrickson, a dw goods merchant in Frederick, died at his home here last night after a long illness. He was married May 2, 1882, to Miss Louise A. Hunt, Indianapolis, who survives him. He also leaves three sons, John, Hunt Hendrickson, attorney, Portland, Ore.; R. Ames Hendrickson, associated with his father in the local business, and Carroll H. Hendrickson of Hagerstown. One brother, Charles B. T. Hendrickson of this city also survives.

Four nurses were graduated yesterday at the Frederick City Hospital Nursing School, as follows: Miss Amy Day of Mount Airy, Miss Naomi Rothmeyer of Frederick and Misses Hendrickson and Anna Anthony of Walkersville.

The thirtieth annual meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of the United Lutheran church of the middle conference, Maryland Synod, was held this week at St. Luke's Lutheran Church, Pikesville, near here. About sixty delegates attended. The next convention will be held at Lovettsville, Va.

The officers are: Mrs. S. T. Nicholas of Washington, president; Miss Lizzie T. Birely of Middleburg, Md., vice president; Mrs. U. S. G. Rupp of Frederick, secretary-treasurer; Miss Elizabeth Sheeleigh of Frederick box work director and Mrs. C. V. Kepler of Frederick, magazine secretary.

Myersville, Middletown and Woodsboro, three of the chief community centers of Frederick county, have protested the power rate increase put into effect by the Hagerstown and Frederick Railway Company. Middletown and Myersville are preparing to carry their fight to the public service commission, although the schedule of rates, as put into effect by the traction company, have been approved by that body.

Col. Thomas W. Miller, United States alien property custodian, with the speaker at the dedicatory exercises at Braddock Heights, May 30, when "Memorial Grove," comprised of ninety-two Norway maples, will be officially opened in tribute to the service men of Frederick city and county who died during the world war.
